

Gwālīār Mint – Shāh 'Ālam II – Silver, Rupee 1802 to1806

دین محمد عالم بادشاہ
مصالحہ الراجی
زاد ہرینعت ۱۲۰۰

sikka zad bar haft kishwar sāya fazl ilāh hāmī dīn muḥammad shāh 'ālam bādshāh [AH date] (= Defender of the religion of Muḥammad, Shāh 'Ālam Emperor, Shadow of the divine favour, put his stamp on the seven climes, [AH date]).

مانوس
سیدہ جانوس
ضرب کو الیاد

zarb gwālīār sanah 46 julūs maimanat mānūs (= struck at Gwālīār in the 46th year of tranquil prosperity).

Actual Weight (g)	10.92-11.10	Actual Diameter (mm)	20.2-21.4	Composition	Silver
--------------------------	-------------	-----------------------------	-----------	--------------------	--------

Catalogue

Cat No.	AH	RY	Comments	Rarity
8.123	1218	46	The straight sword is said to represent a British officer's sword. See Comments and also Gwālīār Mint.	R
8.123C	1220	47	Ref: Oswal Auction (2017), 69, lot 69.427.	R

Gwālīār Mint – Shāh 'Ālam II – Copper, Pice 1802 to1806

Actual Weight (g)	9.49	Actual Diameter (mm)	?	Composition	Copper
--------------------------	------	-----------------------------	---	--------------------	--------

Catalogue

Cat No.	AH	RY	Comments	Rarity
-	xxxx	46?	More specimens are needed to confirm this catalogue entry. It could be a copper core for a rupee forgery.	R