Moghul Empire – Aurangzeb – Bījāpūr Mint, Silver – Type 7, Karnatak dār al zafar

Note S.B.: After the conquest of the Adil Shahi and Qutb Shahi Sultanates, their domains were redistributed by the Mughals into two new 'Subahs' - Bijapur Karnatak and Hyderabad Karnatak. Each was further subdivided into 'Balaghat' and 'Payinghat'.

The capital of the soobah of Bijapur Karnatic was Sira. So that would probably be a likely contender for the place where these coins were struck. (See Sira Mint and also a mohur issued from Sira, also Karnatak Mint)
